Your Fulbright grant is renewed for the period of 8/20/2018 to 5/11/2019 for a Master's degree in Engineering at U of North Dakota - Graduate School, North Dakota. Your estimated degree completion date is 5/11/2019.

Financial Provision:

You will receive directly:

Maintenance allowance: $1,280 per month (from August to April)

Book allowance: $1,000 in 2 installments (August and January)

You will receive a $300 return baggage allowance in your last grant payment.

Your Fulbright award provides an allowance of up to 9 monthly maintenance payments for the renewal grant period. If your renewal grant period is from August 2018 to May 2019, you will receive 9 monthly maintenance payments starting in August through April. These monthly payments are disbursed to you up to a month in advance, i.e. August payment is disbursed at the end of July, April payment is disbursed at the end of March. It is your responsibility to budget accordingly.

Awards:

It is understood that these awards have been confirmed:

You will receive a partial tuition waiver for 5 credit hours from your host institution for the 2018/2019 academic year.

Payments/Invoices:

The balance of your tuition and fees for required credits will be paid on your behalf along with the mandatory university health insurance upon receipt of an invoice from your academic institution.

The invoice should be emailed to globalprogramoperations@iie.org and must identify you by name and IIE Participant ID (found at the top of these terms). It should be addressed to Institute of International Education, Global Program Operations, 809 United Nations Plaza, New York, New York 10017. If it cannot be emailed, please send via mail to the aforementioned address. It is critical that invoices be remitted no later than 60 days after registration. Invoices addressed to you are not acceptable.

Renewal Provisions:

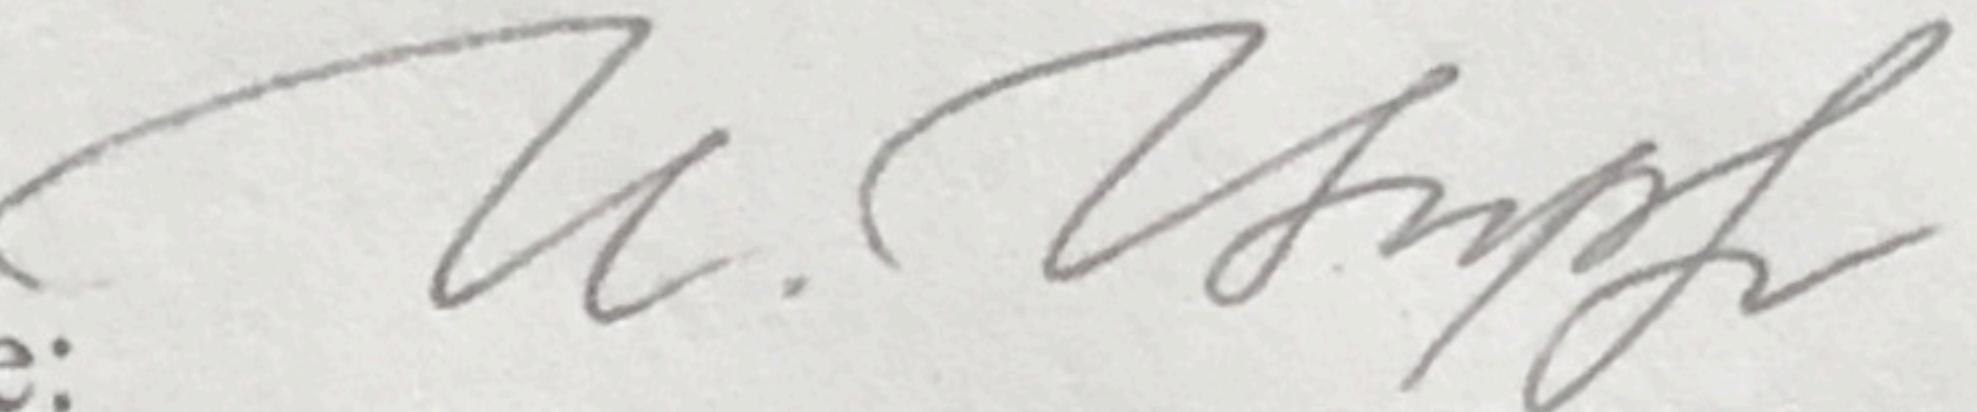

Your Fulbright Grant is not renewable.

Your Fulbright Group Accident and Sickness benefits coverage is extended to 5/11/2019.

TAXES AND REQUIRED IDENTIFICATION NUMBER: You are required by law to file a US federal income tax report, as well as State tax forms, as required by the State in which you are living. Your grant sponsor, the US Department of State, has authorized payment of US federal tax withholding from its funds and has arranged through IIE to pay the tax due on your Fulbright grant for each calendar year in which payments are made to you or on your behalf while in the US. The US Department of State, has also authorized payment of any State tax obligation from its funds and has arranged through IIE to pay any such tax due on your Fulbright grant for each calendar year in which payments are made to you or on your behalf while in the US. The IIE income tax service, GRANTAX, provides expert tax assistance in preparing and filing your US federal tax report. If you receive a cash grant from Fulbright that is distributed to you by IIE you are required to utilize GRANTAX services at no cost to you. Your annual income/withholding tax reporting form (1042S, Foreign Person's US Source Income Subject to Withholding) for your Fulbright grant will be kept by IIE in order to prepare and submit your annual income tax report to US tax authority on your behalf. You will receive full details and materials concerning enrollment after the beginning of the new calendar year.

Note: All Terms and Conditions described in your previous Terms of Appointment and any subsequent Amendment(s) remain in force.

To accept the renewal of your Fulbright Grant and avoid any delay in grant payments, please sign and upload this document to the IIE Self-Service Portal (SSP) using the "Grant Document" category and also submit one copy to Student Accounts on your campus within 5 days.
